Obituary

With heartfelt sorrow and loving remembrance, we celebrate the life of Cheryl Lockett, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend.

Cheryl Sutton was born on June 7, 1952, in Kinston, North Carolina, to two wonderful parents, Martha D. Sutton and Sampson Lee Sutton. She was surrounded by love and family, values that she would carry with her through her personal her life. She grew up alongside her beloved siblings: Pernicia Williams and her husband Bill Williams, Sandra Sutton, Alfred Sutton and his wife Rosie Sutton, and Gail Sutton.

Cheryl Lockett was a woman whose life was rooted in love, faith, and family. She shared a beautiful and enduring marriage of 55 years with her beloved husband, Zeno Lockett, celebrating that remarkable milestone in October. Their union was a shining example of commitment, partnership, and unconditional love.

Together, Cheryl and Zeno were blessed with three beautiful daughters: Crystangella Chatterton, and her husband Christopher Chatterton; Enzekka Lockett; and Yvonne Tolbert and her husband Timothy Tolbert. Cheryl took immense pride in her children, nurturing them with wisdom, strength, and grace.

Obituary Continued

Her legacy continues through her seven grandchildren: Christopher Lockett and his wife Vanessa Lockett, Cymone Lockett, RaShawn Lockett, Joshua Tolbert and his wife Mary Tolbert, Mariah Lockett, Jordan Tolbert, and Timothy Tolbert. She was also the proud great-grandmother of eight precious great-grandchildren, each of whom brought her immeasurable joy.

Cheryl's life was a testament to the power of love and devotion. She found her greatest happiness surrounded by her family, celebrating milestones, offering guidance, and creating treasured memories that will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

She will be remembered for her warm spirit, gentle strength, and the deep love she poured into her family. Though she is no longer with us her legacy of love, faith, and family will continue for generations to come.

As she moved to her heavenly home on February 19, 2026, we take comfort in knowing that this is not goodbye forever. One day, we will see her again.
